Dear Qanita

السلام علیکم ورحمۃ اللہ وبرکاتہ

I am deeply touched by your profound letter. Only Allah knows and He knows best how many storms rage and scream under the calm surfaces of human ocians. Thank you so much for sharing with me a few moments of your private tribulations. No wonder that it is the utter loneliness of deserts which nurtures and raises storms of most violent and turbulent nature.

But do you know something? I have known it all along. Your letter brought no news to me. It was just a reminder that I must pray more for you with more tender care. How I wish I could be of some help to you!

Yours sincerely,
M Tahir
